

Ebenezer Red Ribbon Week Activities

"I Elect To Be Drug Free!"

MONDAY
October 22, 2012

"I elect to be drug free!"

- * Wear red, white and blue to show that you elect to be drug free.
- * NO hair dye or face painting.

TUESDAY
October 23, 2012

"I elect to sock it to drugs!"

- * Wear crazy or mis-matched socks to school.

WEDNESDAY
October 24, 2012

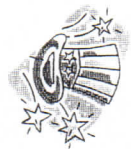

"I elect to be healthy and black out drugs!"

- * Wear black clothing.
- * NO hair dye or face painting.
- * This is also APPLE CRUNCH DAY! Each child will get an apple.

THURSDAY
October 25, 2012

"I elect to say PEACE out to drugs!"

- * Wear tie-dye clothing to school.

FRIDAY
October 26, 2012

"I elect to team up against drugs!"

- * Wear your favorite sport shirt to school!
- Flag Football Game
- Faculty versus 4th & 5th graders!

Red Ribbon Week

* Each student will receive a red ribbon bracelet and a silicone bracelet that says "I elect to be drug free!"
Each student also has the chance to win additional red ribbon items in their classroom, including a peace out to drugs water bottle! ☺
All items were purchased by the Ebenezer PTE. ☺

In Addition:

Staff members will be on morning announcements to remind students of the daily themes.

* PLEASE help us ELECT TO BE DRUG FREE by encouraging your child to participate in the daily themes.